

Day 8 – “La Grande Finale”

During the final day, the students will become the facilitators, they will put in practice what they have learned and prepared for over the past few days.

The location takes place at the Appel Hall the FLKL brings together professionals, government, students and teachers.